WYCKOFF 2018 MUNICIPAL CALENDARS MAILED

The Wyckoff Township Committee announced that the Township's 2018 Municipal Calendar will be delivered to homes and businesses in the Township via the US Postal Service the week of December 18, 2017. Residents who do not receive a mailed copy can visit the Municipal Clerk's Office in Town Hall to obtain one.

The 2018 edition of the calendar highlights our community's focus on recycling with the theme; "Keep Calm and Recycle On". The calendar outlines tools and strategies to champion recycling and to improve the overall percentage of recycling. The calendar provides important statistics and resources as well as information concerning opportunities for recycling. The Township expects this calendar to be a go-to useful guide for residents for years to come. As always, the calendar also contains timely and useful information regarding trash/recycling schedules, voting districts, polling locations and dates of municipal events.

The calendar is an information source of relevant and useful public information such as how residents can help Wyckoff achieve the Nifty Fifty recycling rate; garbage and single stream recycling schedules in addition to a listing of useful telephone numbers and meeting dates. Also, residents are encouraged to log onto wyckoff-nj.com to sign up for Enews on the home page to receive timely updates direct to your computer or phone, register their cell phones at the Swift 911 notification symbol on the home page, and sign up to receive text messages from the Wyckoff Police Department at the Nixle text message symbol to receive storm emergency information from the Wyckoff Police Department.

If you are a Facebook user, please visit the Township's following pages:

- Wyckoff, NJ Office of Emergency Management
- Wyckoff Local Government
- Wyckoff Mayor's Wellness Campaign

In addition, the Township is on Twitter: @WyckoffTownship

It is to the residents' advantage to have this useful information and we hope residents will find the 2018 calendar informative and helpful.

Again we thank our local businesses that sponsor the calendar through their advertisements and make the calendar possible.

The Township Committee extends its best wishes for a happy and safe holiday season and a Happy New Year.
