

Learn How to be a ROSEBUDDy at the Gardens of Wyckoff

SAVE THE DATE!

The fourth and final session of the rose garden program is coming up. This free program is open to all Wyckoff residents and will be conducted by an American Rose Society Certified consulting rosarian, Michael Mitchell. Residents will learn how to care for roses and contribute to the care of the public rose garden in the Gardens of Wyckoff. The rose garden at the Gardens of Wyckoff located at the intersection of Wyckoff Avenue and Crescent Avenue is the location where a new Wyckoff program will be conducted. The program will be conducted on Saturday, 11.08.17, rain or shine:

Saturday, November 18, 2017 9:00 am – 10:00 am
Winterizing Roses

Come to the Gardens of Wyckoff and learn how to grow and care for roses, including the basics of pruning, fertilizing and pest control. Be prepared with your own gloves and clippers. Register now for this program via email to ncole@wyckoff-nj.com.

*“It was roses, roses all the way.” – Robert
Browning*